GP funding fight goes to the Prime Minister

TWO GP practice managers were due to hand over a 10,000-signature petition to the Prime Minister today.

Marion McLaine and Ann Sisson, from Haverhill's two surgeries at Christmas Maltings, were due to be joined by MP Richard Spring at the door of Number 10.

They were due to hand over the petition which calls on the Government to stop a total cut of £280,000 to the town's GP budgets from April.

Ann Sisson, practice manager of Dr Mohan's surgery, said: "We have been invited to Downing Street to hand in the petition. There has been enormous support from the community on this. There will be huge consequences to medical care in Haverhill if these cuts go ahead.

"I just hope the Government listens to the people. I'm disgusted with the way we are being treated by Suffolk Primary Care Trust (PCT)."

But Mrs Sisson was hoping the Prime Minister, Gordon Brown, would not answer the door. She said: "I am so disgusted and upset by this that I don't think he would get a very warm greeting from me."

Richard Spring, West Suffolk MP, said: "From the outset I have argued that the proposals by Suffolk PCT were wholly and completely unacceptable. The slashing of funding for GP services will have a devastating effect on patient care.

"Haverhill is the most rapidly expanding town in Suffolk. Funding should be increased to reflect this additional need, not cut due to the operation of an unfair funding formula which has a disproporortionate effect on our GP services."

Health chiefs have vowed that no jobs or services will be lost from surgeries in Haverhill. The promise comes despite the loss of £62,000 from next year's budget for town GPs – the first part of the cuts package.

At a Haverhill meeting PCT chief executive Carole Taylor-Brown came under fire from councillors, medics and residents. She asked practices to look at efficiency and organisation.

But Dr Felicity Lewis, a Christmas Maltings surgery GP, said: "I see 10 to 15 extra patients in an afternoon and yet the number of people from Haverhill who go to A&E seems high."

Mrs Sisson said the new grant, equating to £81 per patient, would only allow her to budget for 8,500 out of 10,000 registered patients.

But Mrs Taylor-Brown told the Weekly News: "The PCT is responsible for ensuring the money we receive for health care is used to get the best possible services for patients. We were concerned by the wide variation in funding and services by practices, which is what led us to review the GP contracts.

"We are not reducing the amount of money available, and there are additional funds available to practices in Haverhill, so we don't accept there will need to be cuts. In fact, we expect to see benefits for patients by guaranteeing a consistent level of services at each practice. We do understand the concerns of the practices and will work with them to phase in the changes and keep the situation under review."

Another public meeting will be held at Haverhill Arts Centre this Saturday from 10am to 12pm

Scent of success

INTERNATIONAL Flavours and Fragrances (IFF) held a grand charity ball last Friday to celebrate 50 years in Haverhill.

The ball, held at Chilford Hall, Linton, raised money for St Nicholas Hospice in Bury St Edmunds and the BBC's Children in Need.

The evening had a James Bond theme and the 280 guests were greeted by character lookalikes of Sean Connery and "Jaws" before being offered vodka martinis – shaken not stirred, of course.

During the evening a grand raffle was held with the top prize being a long weekend break for two in New York, staying at the Mansfield Hotel and with front row seats to see A Chorus Line on Broadway.

Later, an auction raised more than £6,000 after the winner of the top prize in the raffle kindly offered the prize back to be sold to the highest bidder.

Among the lots were the chance to get behind a Lotus Exige sports car at Silverstone in the company of Ben Clucas, the Formula 3 champion of Australia, and two Club Wembley tickets to the 2008 Carling Cup final.

A Children in Need Pudsey Bear, signed by Sir Terry

Wogan, and wearing a diamond necklace, sold for £650.

After dinner, guests were able to try their luck on the tables at a casino.

The following night, it was the turn of the employees to be entertained by IFF, again at Chilford Hall.

Yobs target shops in wave of vandalism

BY Raymond Brown

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

YOBS have gone on a window smashing spree – and a doctors' surgery was again targeted.

Youths threw bricks through the windows of three shops in High Street, Haverhill, between 6.45 and 7.45pm on Saturday.

Superdrug and fashion stores New Look and Bon Marche had several windows smashed. Another business in High Street was also hit.

Clements doctors' surgery in Norton Road was targeted for the second time this month.

Meanwhile, on November 4, four windows were smashed at the GP practice and Saturday night saw youths using spray paint on the building.

A police spokeswoman said: "There have been additional incidents of criminal damage in Shepherds Court, the High Street and Norton Road areas of Haverhill.

"In Shepherds Court an unknown person has smashed the lower double glazed pane in a rear door. In High Street large pieces of flint rock from a wall adjacent to business premises have been thrown at windows causing damage.

"In Norton Road the Clements doctors surgery had a glass brick in its wall broken by unknown means.

"Offenders have also used gold paint to spray the letters 'DX' on to another glass brick and red paint to spray the letters 'SK' onto the normal brick wall of the surgery."

Police conducted a door-to-door inquiry into the damage and are also making an appeal for information about the damaging spree.

The police spokeswoman added: "Have you seen or heard anything unusual or suspicious in any of these areas?"

"Do you know who may have been responsible for these crimes?"

"Do you know who DX or SK may be?"

Anyone with information relating to any of the above incidents is asked to contact Haverhill police on (01284) 774100 quoting reference number HH/07/2707.

Lights on to start festivities

THE big festive lights switch-on will mark Haverhill's countdown to Christmas.

Huge crowds are expected in market square on Saturday, December 1, when the lights go on at 6.30pm.

More than 1,200 lights will sparkle on the largest tree Rougham Estates can supply.

Meanwhile, late-night shopping, charity stalls, street entertainment and one of the biggest and best firework displays in the region mean the Family Christmas Night remains one of the most popular events in the town's calendar.

This year it takes place on Friday, December 14, from 5.30pm with the fireworks on the recreation ground at 8.45pm.

There is also a Christmas craft fair at Haverhill library on Saturday and a Christmas shopping and pampering evening at Haverhill Arts Centre on Friday, November 30.

Gill McGregor will hold a seasonal flower arrangement demonstration at The Haverhill Flower Club Christmas extravaganza on Monday, December 3, at the arts centre.

The venue also hosts some great family events during December and January.

Local big band, 42nd Street, will swing into action at the arts centre on Friday, December 7.

There will be Christmas music hall on December 20, and two pantomimes Robinson Crusoe from December 21-24, and the Centre Stage company's show Snow White from January 18-20 and 24-26.

Car aerial stolen

THIEVES took the aerial from a car in Haverhill. The red Peugeot 106 was parked in Waveney Terrace, between 9pm on November 10 and 9am on November 12 when it was stolen. Anyone with information should call Sergeant Sarah Bartley at the Haverhill south safer neighbourhood team on (01284) 774100.

Thieves' fuel theft

FUEL crooks struck at a new development. The thieves pushed over secure fencing in Hales Barn Road, Haverhill between 5pm on November 14 and 7am the next day. They siphoned red diesel from plant equipment stored there. Anyone with information can contact Haverhill police on (01284) 774100.

Graffiti attack

VANDALS sprayed graffiti over an industrial unit. The criminal damage happened in Homefield Road, Haverhill, between 8am on November 10 and 9am the next day. Graffiti was sprayed onto the side and door of the unit. Call Pc Andy Green at Haverhill police on (01284) 774100.

Galaxy is taken

A CAR containing a pushchair and child car seat was stolen. The blue Ford Galaxy, with the registration N55 7SPA, was taken from Connaught Road, Haverhill, between 9pm on November 18 and 8.30am the next day. Call Pc Benjamin Vann at Haverhill police on (01284) 774100.

Parents' fury at 'divisive' claim in school dispute

BY Raymond Brown

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

FURIOUS parents have hit out at headteachers who branded their campaign for a secondary school "divisive".

The town's education chiefs slated the call for a secondary school in Clare, as the consultation begins over sweeping changes to Suffolk's education system.

Governors, headteachers and the county council want to create two primary/secondary school federations for the Haverhill area. Chalkstone, Castle Hill and Parkway Middle Schools would close, along with Clare Middle School, under the proposals.

A joint-letter to the Weekly News from Haverhill-based headteachers and governors said: "We understand the wishes of some people in Clare for a separate secondary school, but we believe this would be a divisive step which would have a detrimental effect on the young people of the area by making it more difficult to deploy available resources effectively."

The letter is signed by Madeleine Vigar, headteacher, and Alan Pearson, chairman of governors, from Castle Manor Business and Enterprise College and Howard Lay, headteacher, and Bob Shepstone, chairman of governors, from Samuel Ward Arts and Technology College.

But some teachers and headteachers have told the Weekly News they have been gagged by the council and the views expressed in the letter are "far from unanimous".

Phil and Jan Stanbury-Jones, of Snow Hill, Clare, who have two children at Clare Middle School, said: "We were dismayed to read the article last week from Haverhill headteachers and governors, branding the proposal of a secondary school in Clare a 'divisive step'."

"For the residents of Clare and surrounding villages, denying Clare its own secondary school and forcing hundreds of rural children out of their communities into large schools in Haverhill would truly, to use the Haverhill-based group's own words, 'have a detrimental effect on young people of the area'."

"The Haverhill headteachers and governors appear to have failed to look at, and understand, the impact to Clare and the rural communities in backing Suffolk County Council's Option 1."

"A secondary school in Clare will allow local people to continue to be involved in the life of the school children, encouraging social responsibility and mutual respect across the ages."

"Clare middle school accommodates the important local youth club and holds the potential to deliver extra facilities and services for the community."

"Without a secondary school in Clare it will be near impossible for many rural children to access extra-curricular activities outside school hours."

"Rather than being 'divisive', supporting the option for secondary education in Clare is supporting an option to provide the best opportunity for excellent education for both the children of Haverhill and Clare and the surrounding villages."

The consultation runs until January 18.

Pyjama joy for Pudsey

PRE-SCHOOL tots helped to raise money for Children in Need by wearing something a little different for the day. Thurlow and Bradley district pre-school held a special pyjama party and each of its 26 youngsters paid £1 to wear their nightclothes for the day. Their favourite cuddly toys were not left out either and were brought along for a special teddy bears' picnic. Helen Frost, acting leader of the pre-school, said: "All the children came in pyjamas and brought their teddy bears along. They had a brilliant time." The pre-school holds the event annually to raise money for the BBC charity, which famously uses Pudsey bear as its mascot.

Catwalk stars shine

TRENDY students wowed the audience with a fashion show as part of a college enterprise week. The budding style gurus at Castle Manor Business and Enterprise College used their entrepreneurial skills to stage the catwalk show as part of its Enterprise Week 2007. Students were challenged to organise the whole event in just four days. The show sold more than 150 tickets and was judged a huge success with local fashion stores such as Ziess, Diva, Topshop, Peacocks, Morleys and Select, providing the outfits. Chloe Freds, one of the sixth form student organisers, said: "It was an unforgettable experience. People who have never worked with each other before were brought together and created a high class fashion show." A fancy dress day was held at the college on Friday which raised £1,000, with £750 going to Children In Need and the rest to local charities.

Two raids

TWO businesses were broken into overnight in High Street, Haverhill. Entry was forced into both premises which were thoroughly searched before computer equipment and cash was stolen. A safe was also stolen from one of the businesses. Thieves bolt-cropped the fastenings holding the safe to the floor before removing the entire unit. Police are now appealing for witnesses or anyone who has information about the incidents, which occurred between 6pm on Monday and Tuesday. Anyone with information should contact Haverhill police on (01284) 774100 quoting reference number HH/07/2726.

New bloom

HAVERHILL in Bloom has appointed a new chairman. Trevor Barwood will succeed Tim Radford, who has held the position for three years. Mr Radford said: "It has been a privilege to have been involved from the outset with the Haverhill in Bloom series of competitions.

"However, there does come a time when fresh ideas and a renewed vigour is required in order to continue to push this type of project forward.

"I am delighted Trevor has accepted this role and very confident in his ability to lead the group forward."

More than 30,000 bulbs have been planted across the town since Mr Radford began as chairman.

Cash in Saffron Building Society, in Queen Street, Haverhill, is urging local charities not to miss out on £500. One charity or voluntary group in Haverhill and the surrounding villages will receive the grant. To enter, visit the branch and ask for an application form. The form asks how the money will be used, and how it will benefit the community.

MP urges action on winter deaths

BY Raymond Brown

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

WINTER deaths among the elderly have risen by a "horrendous" 30 per cent, says an MP who is calling for urgent action.

As temperatures dipped overnight this week to minus 2C (28F), West Suffolk MP Richard Spring, pictured, has called for an inquiry to prevent hundreds of people dying in Suffolk because of the cold this winter.

In the year 2005/06 350 more people died during the winter months than in the summer or autumn, up from 270 in 2003-04 but down from an even bigger high of 440 in 2004-05.

Mr Spring was "horrified" at the "dreadful" death toll and has written to Suffolk Primary Care Trust demanding an investigation. He said: "These figures are horrendous, and the worry is that it's the policy of the Government for more care in the community. But as any GP will tell you, there are not enough resources for that.

"I am very concerned that the support structure is just not there and we will see more elderly people dying unnecessarily this winter.

"The situation in Suffolk is dreadful for elderly people, who are the most vulnerable. There are a lot fewer bed spaces in hospitals or care homes. This is contributing to the increase in excess winter deaths. It's absolutely appalling."

The MP has written to the trust calling for an immediate inquiry.

He said: "None of the deaths occurred as a result of a winter influenza epidemic, which has not taken place for many years. I would like an explanation as to how these deaths have risen to such a level in our county.

"I am disturbed about these figures because our population is ageing at a time when the number of hospital beds in our area has been reduced.

"Community nurses and social workers have told me provision of adequate community support is being stretched beyond endurance. In the circumstances, therefore, these figures make horrendous reading."

New church go-ahead

A NEW church will be built in Haverhill.

The expanding flock of worshippers who attend St Felix Church can look forward to a new-look place of worship.

Planning permission has been granted for the construction of a new building.

St Edmundsbury Council's development control committee gave the green light for what its own planning officers described as an "exciting development with high quality contemporary architecture".

The new church will be built on an area of land next to the current church, in Princess Way.

In time for Christmas

A CHURCH will host its Christmas Fair on Saturday, December 1. The event, which is organised by St Felix Church, takes place at Haverhill library from 10am to 3.30pm.

Vandal wrecking bid to save tots

A PHANTOM vandal is damaging a bid to save a pre-school from closure.

Thurlow pre-school is holding two events to raise cash in an attempt to keep the popular school open.

But a mystery sign-lifter has been tearing down posters plugging a fundraising clairvoyant evening and a Christmas shopping and pampering night.

Shonagh Shipp, the event organiser is baffled and angered by the damage to the school's cause.

She said: "We have put up six posters around the village and they have all been torn down."

"I can't understand why anyone would do this. We really need to raise money for the school or it will close."

"We have no idea who is doing this, but would ask that they please stop."

The Christmas shopping and pampering evening will be held on November 30 at the Haverhill Arts Centre starting at 7.30pm. Tickets are £5, including a glass of wine, and are available from the arts centre.

The event includes footwear, Barefoot Books, lingerie, confectionery, handmade soaps, Chinese embroidered bags and shoes. Shoppers can be pampered by various local beauticians with mini massages, colour therapy, aromatherapy, Reiki, and Indian head massage.

The second fundraising event is a clairvoyant evening with Fiona Nichols in Thurlow Village Hall on December 7 at 7.30pm. Tickets are £6 in advance or £7.50 on the door and include tea/coffee and cake. There will also be a raffle on the evening. For tickets call (01440) 708809.

Freedom award for town's war heroes

MORE than 40 people have been awarded the Freedom Of Haverhill.

The honour was given in recognition of their efforts during the Second World War.

Les Agner, deputy mayor, presented a commemorative scroll to 34 war veterans at Haverhill Arts Centre as part of the Remembrance Day events.

They also enjoyed a lunch laid on by Haverhill Town Council.

Ten veterans who were unable to make the presentation will receive their awards at a later date.

The Freedom Of Haverhill awards were agreed by the town council in June as a way to recognise the war efforts of Haverhill residents in the armed forces, Land Army, nursing auxiliaries and other services.

Gordon Mussett, town clerk, said: "We are delighted to recognise those who played their part in the war."

"Some people may have thought they were going to be allowed to herd their sheep through the town."

"Some of these awards do come with such rights, but I'm afraid that is not the case here."

Coun Ted Trebble, Haverhill mayor, who initially suggested the idea, was unable to attend. He is recuperating in Newmarket Hospital, following a stroke.

However, he hopes to join the Haverhill Christmas festivities.

News from Castle Manor Business and Enterprise College

TEACHERS and students enjoyed a much anticipated week at the college as Enterprise Week saw students go off timetable to enjoy various events around the school. Year 10 students Ryan Doyle; Charlie Findon; Sasha El-Halwani; Sam Saunders; Andrew Haylock; Lloyd Taylor; Cory Smith; Catherine Darkins; Cameron Clark; and Steven Ridpath took part in the Young Apprentice Competition. They completed business tests – including a team task to see who could sell a box of fruit for the most money, created a leaflet on the new cinema complex, designed a bank of the future, and produced a presentation about student finance. Finalists Catherine Darkins and Sasha El-Halwani had to make PowerPoint presentations to the whole school. Sasha El-Halwani came in second place, for the second year running, while Catherine Darkins won a brand new laptop, courtesy of Barclays Bank. The launch of the Young Chambers at The Fox was also a success, with many firms, journalists, and members of the chambers of commerce present. The fashion show went extremely well on Thursday. Lots of people turned up to watch the hard work the students had put into the show, which was shown on ITV Anglia News. Thanks to the event management team for their backstage work throughout the night. Congratulations to everyone who participated in many events throughout Enterprise Week. The hard work produced was remarkable and gave everyone a break from the more academic regular timetable. Last Friday, Children In Need was marked with a non-uniform day with the theme of fancy dress. Many angels, fairies, and the odd pirate turned up at college that day, enjoying the many activities and competitions going on during the extended lunchtime, including guessing how many balloons were in a car, a football shootout and a chance to throw pies at the teachers. Around £1,000 was raised, 75 per cent of which will go to Children In Need and the rest to local charities.

Bishop praises area's resilience

BY Raymond Brown

editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

THE diocese's new bishop has praised people for their resilience in the face of catastrophes of almost biblical proportions.

Rt Rev Nigel Stock, pictured, became the tenth Bishop of St Edmundsbury and Ipswich on Tuesday at an enthronement ceremony in St Edmundsbury Cathedral.

Bishop Stock said: "The arrival of a new bishop might seem to focus on one person. But I hope the day is more about the life of the church, and the way that it serves the people of Suffolk. The county has had a tough time in the past few weeks.

"There has been the recent threat of a tidal surge and agriculture has suffered the double blow of Bluetongue disease and Avian Flu.

"But as a newcomer I'm struck by peoples' resilience. This is a part of the world full of opportunity, with a wonderful heritage."

The enthronement, on St Edmund's Day, is the first to take place in Suffolk for ten years.

In the ceremony Bishop Nigel officially took his seat – known as the Cathedra – in the high altar sanctuary of the cathedral.

Speaking before the ceremony, Dean of St Edmundsbury, the Very Revd Neil Collings, who led the service, said: "This is the moment we welcome our new bishop and friend."

Bishop Stock, 57, comes to Suffolk after serving as the Bishop of Stockport in the Diocese of Chester for the last six years. He replaces the Rt Rev Richard Lewis, who retired in July.

Rudolph's deer treat

CHILDREN worried that Rudolph might get hungry delivering all those Christmas gifts can help the red-nosed reindeer.

Haverhill Post Office in High Street has packets of specially-prepared food to ensure that Father Christmas's chargers get plenty of refreshment as they make their marathon delivery.

Each pack contains a mixture of oats and sparkly crystals to guide Santa's sleigh to your door. They are offered for a suggested donation of £1 to raise funds for Help the Hospices. Royal Mail's three-year partnership with the charity has already raised £1.3 million for UK hospices.

Nick Gittens, the Post Office's head of corporate social responsibility, said: "Christmas is a very busy time of year for all kinds of delivery professionals, reindeer included, so anything we can do to help them is good news!"

Bully beat

POLICE in Suffolk have joined in a nationwide anti-bullying campaign this week.

Officers visited schools across the county to ask pupils about their experiences and explain how they can get help.

Ben Cook, crime reduction inspector, said: "It's an ongoing programme to give young people help and advice."

"Officers regularly visit schools speaking to children. We cover a whole range of topics, from knives alcohol, driving and riding to personal safety and bullying."

He continued: "Throughout the week lessons in schools will involve input on bullying. This includes what to do if you are being bullied, or witness someone else being bullied."

OUT WITH THE OLD AND IN WITH THE NEW LASTING POWERS OF ATTORNEY

With effect from 1st October 2007, Lasting Powers of Attorney (LPA) replaced Enduring Powers of Attorney (EPA). Don't worry, if you have an existing EPA, it will continue to be valid and operate in virtually the same way as before.

The new style LPA comes in 2 forms. Under a Personal Welfare LPA, an attorney could make decisions on your behalf about where you live, your day-to-day care and whether to consent to or refuse medical treatment (including life-sustaining treatment). Under a Property and Affairs LPA, an attorney could have access to all your finances, deal with your tax affairs, make gifts on your behalf and even sell your house for you. However, along with other new safeguards, LPA's must now be registered with the Public Guardian before they can be used.

The new regulations require solicitors who are drafting LPA's to have regard to more extensive measures than ever before to ensure they act in a client's best interests. However, this should not mean you have to pay through the roof for peace of mind about losing your mind! When consulting a solicitor, you should always get an estimate of their costs at the outset. If you think that estimate is too high, try somewhere else.

Penny Absalom and Julie Plumb of Stevens Solicitors

On balance, the new system seems to be an improvement on the old, and we would highly recommend an LPA for anyone concerned about future capacity issues. A well-drafted LPA can give reassurance that someone you trust will be able to make decisions on your behalf. Be warned, however, that LPA's can give very wide-ranging powers and there are a few people who would abuse that power. It is, therefore, essential that you only ever make an LPA after careful consideration and, preferably, after obtaining specialist legal advice. Stevens solicitors are experts in this specialist area of law, Will drafting and probate matters. If you would like further information on any of these areas, please contact either Penny Absalom on 01799 526849 based at 11 Hill Street, Saffron Walden, Essex CB10 1EH or alternatively Julie Plumb on 01440 762511 based at 25 High Street, Haverhill Suffolk CB9 8AD. You can also obtain extensive guidance on LPA's direct from the Office of the Public Guardian by telephoning them on 0845 330 2900 or from their website www.publicguardian.gov.uk.

'Vikings' to get the freedom of borough

THE heroic Royal Anglians will exercise their newfound Freedom of the Borough of St Edmundsbury today.

The 1st battalion are back from a gruelling six-month tour of duty in Afghanistan's Helmand Province, during which nine members were killed.

As part of their homecoming celebrations the battalion, known as the Vikings, will take part in a thanksgiving service on Angel Hill before parading along Churchgate Street, Guildhall Street and Abbeygate Street with the Minden Band of the Queen's Division.

Coun Margaret Charlesworth, Mayor of St Edmundsbury, said: "I do hope the people of the borough will join me in this short service on the Angel Hill to give thanks for the safe return of the regiment."

"There will be a minute's silence during which we will pay our respects to those who lost their lives in both this tour and others."

The Freedom of the Borough is the highest honour which can be bestowed by the council.

It was originally granted to the Suffolk Regiment in 1944 and the 1st East Anglian Regiment in 1963, which later became the Royal Anglian Regiment.

Last week saw the Royal Anglian Afghanistan Memorial Appeal smash through its £100,000 target - on the day troops received their campaign medals for the conflict.

The fund will be used to create a permanent memorial to the nine who were killed in the conflict as well as to help rehabilitate the most seriously injured soldiers.

Commanding officer of the 1st Battalion, Lieutenant Colonel Stuart Carver said: "It is fantastic. We have reached our target, but we are still keen to raise as much money as possible."

"We are getting hundreds of envelopes every week with cheques in them and I have an officer working on it full-time. We have been overwhelmed. I would like to say a heartfelt thank you from the whole battalion."

"The final gesture for them would be to turn out for the homecoming parades in Norwich and Bury St Edmunds next week to show their appreciation in person."

The appeal fund will pay for a permanent memorial to the men of the 1st Battalion and could be sited at the Regimental Museum at Duxford.

Crepe seller in 'more hours' bid

A CREPE seller is hoping to turn over his tasty treats six days a week.

Haverhill businessman Tony Fitch, owner of the Magic Pan Food Company, has applied to St Edmundsbury Borough Council to sell food on Angel Hill six days a week, 10 hours a day.

Mr Fitch currently has a licence which allows him to trade on 28 days a year.

However, concerns have been raised over plans to allow a fast food van in an historic part of Bury St Edmunds.

Members of Bury

Society and Coun Paul Farmer, Abbeygate Ward, fear the move could lead to other stalls.

Coun Farmer said: "However clean and tidy his van is and however tasty his crepes are, this is a matter of principle."

"Once we allow one fast food van in this very special area, how can we stop others?"

The Bury Society members were surprised when the initial licence was granted.

The application goes before the development control committee on January 3.

Saint's day award

CELEBRATION of a saints' day saw the launch of a community award.

Suffolk County Council has launched the Spirit of St Edmund Award to recognise citizenship work within schools. It was part of St Edmund's Day, anniversary events on Tuesday.

St Edmund was an immigrant who came to the throne aged 14 and stood against hate and persecution.

In a bid to hold the saint up as an example of integration schools will be asked to come up with the most effective way of recognising citizenship.

The best idea will be used as the model for future competitions.

Clare's big switch-on CHRISTMAS in Clare officially starts next Friday, November 30, when the Christmas light switch-on will illuminate the first festive treats the town has to offer.

The main event will begin at

New interiors experts, Blue Dog who are located on the High Street, will be welcoming customers to see the new contemporary store. Blue Dog offers a stylish range of items for the home, from china and glassware to comfy cushions and throws, plus lovely gift ideas such as bags and jewellery. Dream Stitches offers the complete tailoring service

■ IDRESS SESAY . . . experienced tailor.

NEW alterations and bespoke tailoring service Dream Stitches opened last year in Haverhill. Owner Idress Mahmoud Sesay says that there has been huge demand for his alterations service.

"I'm a trained tailor and I realised that there was a lot of demand for alterations. I learned to do tailoring over ten years ago before I moved to Britain. When I found it difficult to get a job in my trade – as there were no tailors around – I realised that I should set up my own business."

Idress can alter everything from skirts and blouses to trousers and jackets.

"As many clothes are now made by mass production you'll find that people who all wear a size 16 are very different shapes. I can alter an item to make it fit perfectly. Most often people bring in things that are too big for them."

As more and more clothes retailers open up, Idress thinks his service will support this area of local business.

"The more clothes shops there are, the more garments there are that could need altering. People know they can buy something that's too big and then bring it to me. I also have the skill to alter suits and leather clothing which is quite unusual in this trade."

■ MADE-TO-MEASURE . . . the service will make your clothes fit you perfectly.

In addition, Idress does made-to-measure clothes like bridesmaids dresses.

"I'll make these from scratch because it's often hard to find the same dress which fits all the bridesmaids perfectly."

Pricing his services with the customer in mind, Idress believes he offers highly competitive rates for a first class level of service.

"The speed on the service depends on the job but I believe I can do it quicker than most other businesses."

Create a stylish Christmas tree

CHRISTMAS is the time of year when we want our home to look magical with a beautiful tree as the focal point, but all too often the seasonal gremlins spoil our plans.

■ LESS CLUTTER... an improved look.

These come in many guises from wobbly, funny-shaped trees to flickering or dud lights and a not-so-dazzling array of baubles that family sentiment demands should all be hung.

So instead of a glittering, sparkling sanctuary – like those enviable rooms in the glossy magazines – the whole effect can be nearer to a garish grotto.

But if a stylishly-decorated home has always been on your wish list be reassured. You don't need magic to make that dream come true.

Geraldine James of Selfridges reveals her secrets to help you create a stellar display.

According to Geraldine James, buying manager for Christmas at Selfridges, a traditional style is the favourite for this season. Geraldine says: "Christmas decoration follows fashion, like everything else nowadays, and over the years we've seen all sorts of trends from ultra-trendy black trees, through to fluorescent pink ones.

"There's lots of red and gold, wooden ornaments and also tiny hanging replicas of woodland creatures like squirrels and birds," says Geraldine. "Even tinsel and silver strands hanging from branches are both enjoying a revival."

Interior designer Cecilia Neal offers her designer tips for decorating the tree:

■ TREE CHOICE: If it's a real tree choose one slightly taller than you need, so that if the top is spindly you can cut it down. Its tip will be hidden by the star or angel. Test fairy lights and always put them on first before adding other decorations.

■ DON'T OVERDO IT: She advises: "Don't feel you have to put on every decoration that you possess. Choose a selection that suits the style you're creating. "Using too many will conceal the shape and colour of the tree. Instead use different sizes of baubles in the same colour to give interest."

■ COLOUR IS KEY: Echo one of the two key colours in your scheme in ribbon, paper and felt. Wind coloured ribbon around the tree's trunk, then cut lengths of ribbon of around 9 inches in length and tie into bows for the branches. Use the same colour crepe paper or felt and wrap around the tree's base, and finish with a large coloured 'mat' of felt on which you stand the tree, and display presents.

■ BALANCING ACT: Use larger ornaments at the bottom of the tree, graduating to smaller ones at the top. Also, use heavier ornaments on the thicker branches and place them further back on the stems, nearer the trunk.

■ BEYOND BAUBLES: Cecilia says: "After you've arranged ornaments add a few clip on decorations or small treasures into the dark spaces between branches. Finally, drape garlands or beaded chains over branches."

■ COLOUR... pick a theme stick to it for top results.

Get creative with flower

■ BEAUTIFUL . . . different decorations.

IN the next few weeks we will be digging out the Christmas decorations from the attic, untangling the discarded fairy lights from last year and rearranging the furniture to accommodate the tree.

But before you cover the house with tinsel, why not make room for some more natural decorations this year?

Florist Jamie Aston, author of Flower Arranging Made Simple, says that a great way to add some seasonal sparkle to your home is with a bit of flower power.

■ CHRISTMAS WREATH . . . gives your home a personal touch.

"This time of year allows us to express ourselves. There is endless scope to be creative," he says.

"Christmas has to be every florist's favourite time. I always spend many hours at home decorating the fireplace and tree with pine cones from the local forest."

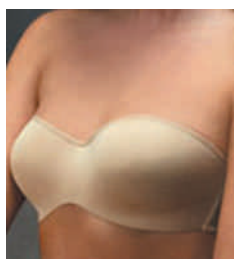

Jamie, who runs a flower arranging school as well as stores in London and inside Selfridges in Manchester, says being good with flowers at any time of year is all a matter of confidence.

"Flower arranging should be enjoyable," he says. "You only need a little guidance to get yourself started. Then, once you start learning what works for you and which flowers go "For a simple, but effective Christmas decoration you could use stems of berries, dust them with fake snow or glitter and put candles round them."

"One of my other favourites is the winter wreath, which is a fun piece to make as it allows for endless creativity."

Here Jamie shows us how to create a stunning Christmas wreath:

FLOWERS

1 bag of sphagnum moss
3 bunches of Scotch pine
3 bunches of sugar pine
12 large headed white roses

OTHER MATERIALS

Reel wire
35cm wire wreath frame
12 pine cones
9 mini-white paper doves
Strands of crystal or glass beads
Spray glue
Iridescent glitter

1. Soak your moss in water and rinse out as you would a dishcloth.

arranging this Christmas

Attach the reel wire onto the wreath frame with a simple knot. Place small hand-sized clumps of moss on top of the wreath frame and bind with wire.

2. Add more clumps of moss onto the frame, binding tightly all way round. Don't cut wire at end.

3. Cut all your pine into 13cm lengths and assemble into little bunches. Bind a bunch of Scotch pine on top.

4. Place a bunch of sugar pine over the bunch you have just bound. Sit it at a slightly different angle to cover the binding point of the last bunch. Continue until you have covered the frame.

5. Use extra props such as cones, birds, crystals and roses and wire them if not already mounted. Spray each rose head with spray glue and gently dip into the glitter.

6. Attach the roses and pine cones in clusters of three, attach the doves and crystals evenly.

Finally, wire strands of crystals or glass beads to the bottom of frame.

Glam getup

ALL the best music of the 1970s comes together for one night at the Junction in Cambridge tomorrow for the second Glampunkska fest. Three of the area's favourite cover bands pay tribute to the era of kipper ties, safety pin earrings and spiky hair. The first Glampunkska night at the Junction last year was such a success a second helping was inevitable. Glam-R-U's provide classics from Slade and T Rex, Smashed unleash some original punk attitude, and Big 10 provide some two tone favourites including Madness, The Specials and Toots and the Maytals. Tickets are £9 in advance and £10 on the door. To book call (01223) 511511.

Slinging soul

LIVING ROOM acoustic night welcomes Jamie Woon back to CB2's Café on Cambridge's Norfolk Street. The guitar slinging soul singer will be joined by indie blues trio Badwell Ash, and Beth Walthew at the gig on Thursday, November 29. The music starts at 8pm. To book tickets, priced £4, go online to www.wegotickets.com/event/21952

Rodent rock

BLUES rock legends The Hamsters play the Junction in Cambridge on Wednesday, November 28, with a tribute to Jimi Hendrix and ZZ Top. The band who have clocked up nearly 4,000 gigs together, will play three sets – their own music and two tributes. It starts at 8pm. Tickets cost £12.50. To book call (01223) 511511.

Junipers put forth new musical roots

A YOUNG band with a 10-year-old drummer wowed the crowd at a drama group's birthday bash – after only three weeks rehearsal. The group, J-walking, are members of Steeple Bumpstead Junipers which celebrated its 15th anniversary this month. Past and present group members and their families attended along with all the past leaders. Assistant leader Triss Pollington said: "Five of the Junipers – aged from 10 to 19 – in a band that had only been pulled together three weeks beforehand played a gig of really good quality." Lead singer was Ben Butcher, 18; Elliot Hingston, 10, "was a real wiz on the drums", 12-year-olds Jacob Flight and Daniel Hughes were on guitar and Sammy Mann, 15, played the keyboard. The Junipers are next on stage at the pantomime, The Snow Queen on January 25 and 26.

Unjaded Shilpa puts reality TV behind her

By Nik Shelton

BOLLYWOOD queen and reality TV survivor Shilpa Shetty arrives in Cambridge next week for an all singing, all dancing extravaganza.

Musical Miss Bollywood is her first big project since an infamous stint in Celebrity Big Brother when a racism row turned into an international incident.

She plays Indian dancer Maya, who comes to London to open a dance school but has to contend with 2012 Olympic developers, falling in love and a rival diva.

Reviews have been mixed but Shilpa insists the show allows the British public to see a side of her overshadowed by the tabloids.

"My job is an actress and this is what I've been doing for the past 15 years but the UK hasn't really seen that."

The story of a young woman struggling to break into the industry couldn't be further from reality when you look at Shilpa's meteoric rise in the Indian film world. Raised in the Southern Indian state of Karnataka, she landed a hit with her first film Baazigar in 1993 aged just 18.

"I wanted to be a model and somebody saw my photograph at an agency and offered me a part in a movie, the rest was history," she said.

Although she's keen to be as

■ BOLLYWOOD SUPERSTAR... Shilpa Shetty.

CP

well known for her films in the UK, as she is in India, it's going to be an uphill struggle getting past the Big Brother debacle.

But despite allegations of racist bullying by her Big Brother housemates Jade Goody, Jo O'Meara and Danielle Lloyd she says she has no regrets about the show.

"I'm glad that what happened happened because it really did touch upon the issue of racism which does exist in this country, sadly. When I came here people were very nice to me but I hear different stories from people and they are sometimes shocking."

Miss Bollywood is at the Corn Exchange from November 27 to November 29 at 7.30pm. Tickets are £23.50-£32.50. To book call (01223) 357851.

YOUR GUIDE TO MOVING HOME

1 Moving home can be a complicated business and, in the hectic run to the big day, it is all too easy to forget something vital. The Property News offers their readers this handy checklist that should help avoid major pitfalls. We suggest you tick off the items as you deal with them...

WITH FOUR WEEKS TO GO:

- ☐ Get estimates from removal companies, checking that comprehensive insurance cover is available against damage or loss. Is there a packing and unpacking service? Confirm the date of your move with the firm you have chosen.
- ☐ Check on your home contents insurance policies to ensure that you are covered for the move, and covered at your new address.
- ☐ Make arrangements for your gas and electricity meters (plus water meters where relevant) to be read and all your appliances to be disconnected on the day of your move.
- ☐ Arrange to take over gas and electricity at your new address, and make sure that all appliances will be properly fitted, plumbed or connected.
- ☐ Notify British Telecom and ask them to make the necessary arrangements for a final account at your present address, and for taking over or installing telephone facilities at your new home.
- ☐ Arrange for change of address cards to be printed.

WITH TWO WEEKS TO GO:

- ☐ Confirm all arrangements, times etc, for meter readings, disconnections and reconnections, with authorities and with your buyer and seller.
- ☐ Make sure you have a good stock of packing materials, including sturdy boxes and plenty of string and sticky tape.
- ☐ Begin to throw out unwanted items from attics, wardrobes. What you really don't want you may as well dump now, or send to charity. It's a great time for a good sort out!

WITH ONE WEEK TO GO:

- ☐ Send off change of address cards.
- ☐ Arrange and pay for automatic redirection of your mail by the Post Office.
- ☐ Cancel and pay up accounts for routine delivery services such as milk, groceries, fuel and your Cambridge Evening News. Re-organise these deliveries for your new address.
- ☐ Defrost refrigerators in preparation for move and, if you are moving a freezer and its contents, turn it up to maximum for a couple of days before you move.

WITH ONE DAY TO GO:

- ☐ Complete your packing except for those items you are likely to need overnight, and prepare a picnic for moving day.
- ☐ Have a large enough cash 'float' available to deal with unexpected expenses, and make sure you have collected documents and valuables together in a safe place.
- ☐ Cover carpets which are being left behind, so as to minimise damage during furniture removal.
- ☐ Check through previous lists to make sure nothing has been overlooked, then enjoy a worry-free early night!

ON MOVING DAY:

- ☐ Strip beds and pack bedding and nightclothes.
- ☐ Pack items for washing/toiletries.
- ☐ Take down curtains.
- ☐ Take up rugs, carpets, floor coverings, as required.
- ☐ Dismantle any light fittings etc., not included in the sale.
- ☐ Turn off electric appliances.
- ☐ Disconnect cooker.
- ☐ Turn off boiler/central heating.
- ☐ Turn off water.
- ☐ Read gas meter.
- ☐ Read electricity meter.
- ☐ Secure all windows.
- ☐ Lock all doors.
- ☐ Leave key as arranged with new owners.
- ☐ On arrival at your new home, unpack slowly and methodically so that you can check for loss or damage.

HAVERHILL WEEKLY NEWS

Crossover Altea makes sense

DOING the school run in a giant 4x4 clearly does not touch the conscience of a great many people, but an increasing number of car makers are beginning to offer products which do less damage to the planet and which offer family versatility with go-anywhere capability.

The new Seat Altea Free-track is not a fully fledged off-roader designed to eat the Sahara but it will cope with icy slushy roads, greasy farm tracks, shallow rivers and that slimy meadow at the point-to-point or gymkhana.

It comes with a choice of two engines, both of which provide sparkly performance. Both are 2.0-litre, with a 198bhp petrol unit and a 168bhp diesel. I would imagine the diesel will be the most popular. It offers outstanding low speed performance, ideal for off-road work, plus better fuel economy (41.5mpg on the combined rating as against 30.1mpg for the petrol).

A six-speed manual gearbox is fitted on both models.

ROAD TEST

Seat makes design work

RODNEY TIBBS

There is little point in being a 4x4 if you don't look butch enough to play the part. The Altea Free-track has zonking great wrap-around plastic bumpers, and 40mm of increased ground clearance as against two wheel drive counterparts. It comes with very practical and permanent roof bars.

The 4x4 system is a Haldex type which means the driver has to do nothing and the car will sort out the drive between front and rear wheels as needed.

Family considerations have clearly dictated the interior of the car. There are numerous storage lockers and cubby holes plus three roof lockers the rearmost one of which lowers to reveal a DVD screen for rear seat entertainment and front seat peace on a long journey. Up to three passengers can be carried on the rear seat.

On the road the Altea Free-track offers accommodating suspension which came as a slight surprise bearing in mind the rather firm, almost brick-like ride you get on some Seat products. Noise levels, even on the diesel, are well subdued and in no way impinge on even a quiet conversation.

The car handles well both on- and off-road and I felt sufficiently relaxed to contemplate quite a lengthy European journey like down to the French Alps and beyond. Sporty overtones are clearly a consideration. There is the three-spoke steering wheel, adjustable for height and reach, and carrying controls for audio, telephone and satnav system. There is also a hinged-at-the-floor accelerator pedal, evocative of classic sports cars.

BASICALLY...

A stylish and practical addition to the sports utility vehicle line-up. Nicely finished and without weaknesses in any department.

Motorists are fed up, says poll

BRITISH motorists are consumed with misery, says a new report.

An overwhelming 98 per cent admitted there is something that drives them mad about being a motorist in the UK, according to research from Barclays Personal Loans.

With rising fuel prices pushing petrol and diesel to over one pound a litre, top of the misery list is the cost of fuel with over a quarter of motorists citing it as their main complaint about motoring. This result is reflected across the country, peaking with more than a third of drivers citing it as their main motoring moan in Wales. However, Londoners are unconcerned about fuel prices, preferring to complain about the traffic jams, parking restrictions, roadworks, motoring fines and charges that make for a hellish driving experience in the capital.

Gary Duggan, managing director for Barclays Personal Loans, said: "With petrol and diesel above £1 in most places, it is perhaps surprising that three quarters of motorists can find some other aspect of driving that drives them more mad than fuel prices – however, Londoners are obviously the least happy finding five other things that irritate them more.

"Although we can't do anything about the cost of fuel, traffic jams or congestion charging, purchasing a car has become easier as we have recently reduced our rates on our loans to as low as 6.8 per cent, and to help a little bit more we will give £50 to customers who switch their current loan to us. So you can reduce costs whilst fuel prices are going up."

Across the UK motorists turn on their own, naming "other motorists" as the second worst thing about driving. Boy racers, white van men and Sunday drivers are all named and shamed as the most irritating road users, with tractors and caravans close behind. Younger people are most irritated by elderly drivers whilst older motorists bemoan boy racers.

Third and fourth in the list are traffic jams and the poor quality of roads, surprisingly leaving road tax, speed limits, insurance costs and motoring fines much further down the list of complaints.

But looking on the bright side, two per cent of drivers found nothing to complain about at all. "I can only assume they run their cars on biofuel and they live in the Outer Hebrides," concluded Duggan.

Volkswagen's only way is space up! blue

VOLKSWAGEN this week unveiled the third and most advanced iteration yet of the up! family of concept vehicles.

Named space up! blue and taking its inspiration from the classic 1950's Samba Bus, the concept vehicle is powered by a pioneering high-temperature fuel cell linked to a series of 12 lithium-ion batteries. The innovative power sources are linked to a rear-mounted electric motor developing 59bhp and 88lb ft of torque.

Running solely on the bank of lithium-ion batteries the space up! blue has a range of around 65 miles. When drawing energy from the fuel cell a range of 155 miles is possible – bringing the vehicle's maximum theoretical range to 220

■ CLEVER CAR . . . VW's up! concepts are all environmentally sound and the space up! blue seen here continues this theme.

The new drivetrain is fully integrated into the space up! blue concept with a bank of solar panels built into the roof of the vehicle to allow the charge in the to be topped up at all times when light falls on them. The fuel cell meanwhile produces electric energy from compressed hydrogen, stored in secure tanks beneath the vehicle.

Running on purely battery power the space up! blue is capable of reaching 62mph in 13.7 seconds before reaching a top speed of 75mph.

Capable of carrying four adults in comfort and a total of 220 litres of luggage capacity the space up! blue's dimensions remain modest, creating an excellent city car.

The interior features a mix innovative materials. Many of the surfaces are constructed out of recycled materials – the instrument panel and the door mouldings are made out of organic plastics or biopolymers.

Development of production versions of the up! family of vehicles is under way with the aim of bringing a road-going version to the market before the end of the decade.

Advertising Sales Manager

Royston Weekly News

■ Due to a restructure within the advertising department, we are now looking to recruit a Sales Manager to be based at our Royston office.

Reporting to the Area Sales Manager you will be responsible for managing a team of Sales representatives, Telesales Advisors and Receptionists who sell advertising across our portfolio of newspapers and niche publications.

The successful candidate will need to demonstrate strong leadership and motivational skills and also be able to develop team members whilst playing a key role in the strategic development of the title.

The Royston Weekly News already has a strong and respected foothold within the local market place and the team has worked hard to successfully grow market share considerably against competition titles, however, we are looking for someone to identify opportunities to drive this title further in a competitive market place.

Strong presentation skills would be a key attribute along with the ability to produce and drive your team towards exceeding targets. You will also need to provide accurate forecasts and write reports to given deadlines.

This is very much a 'hands on role' and the successful applicant will also need to be able to demonstrate the ability to lead from the front.

Experience of working within a newspaper or magazine environment would be beneficial and this position would ideally suit a successful Senior Sales person looking to make the next step up.

This role offers full training and a salary package commensurate with this position along with bonus opportunities and a company car.

For an informal chat or further information about this role, please contact Jo Cloughly on 01223 434209.

Alternatively, for an application pack please call Louise Shephard on: 01223 434311, or email: louise.shephard@cambridge-news.co.uk

We are a leading regional Newspaper publisher and a member of Iliffe News and Media. Our titles include the award-winning Cambridge Evening News, 11 weekly newspapers, a stable of magazines and a suite of websites.

We offer a competitive salary, 5 weeks' annual holiday and free on site parking. Following a probationary period there is an option to join a contributory pension scheme and subsidised health cash plan.

Blake and Loosely on the swoop

Wilbraham 1 Hundon Hawks 11

CAMBS MINI LEAGUE, DIVISION 11A

AFTER picking up their first point of the season in their last game, the Hawks finally found their shooting boots against a battling Wilbraham side, Nathan Loosely and Matthew Blake leading the way with hat-tricks.

Hundon opened the scoring in the fourth minute when Blake scored from inside the penalty area. They were 3-0 up within five minutes when the skipper Loosely netted and Matthew Jackson added a third.

James Curran scored the fourth stealing in at the back post and then just before half time Tom Fisher made it 5-0 with a fine volley from the edge of the area.

Blake scored his second of the match within two minutes of the restart and soon after it was 7-0 when Loosely added another.

Spencer Mizon slotted the ball under the advancing keeper for Hawks' eighth goal before Wilbraham scored a consolation.

But further strikes Loosely and Blake to complete their trebles, and with five minutes left on the clock, Callum Brunning coolly finished off with goal No 11.

Whittleford Warr. 2 West Wrattling 2

CAMBS MINI LEAGUE, DIVISION 11A

VISITORS Wrattling were twice in front but let their advantage slip and in the end, they had to settle for a draw.

Wrattling attacked fiercely down the left with Massie and Lambert, and the right hand side was equally threatened by Stevenson and Payne.

Ager and Scotton stood firm in defence, Foster was tough in midfield.

And it was Massie who put his side in front, when he cut inside his opposite and fired a low shot past the goalkeeper to give Wrattling a 1-0 half-time lead.

The second half set off at pace, Warriors grabbed a goal back before an inspired change saw substitute Foster head in a set piece and put Wrattling in front again.

Whittleford were down but not out, they made Wrattling work hard, and grabbed an equaliser with minutes to go and held Wrattling out to clinch a share of the points.

CAMBRIDGE MINI LEAGUE, CUP, UNDER-10

TWO goals from Alex Carter set the ball in motion for Wrattling to advance further in the cup.

Cambourne were the quicker off the mark at Bull Lane, stunning their hosts by notching the first goal. However parity was restored before the interval when Alex Carter's got his side back on level terms with a great solo run breaking down the Eagles defensive, and he fired home.

Carter soon scored his second after the restart to give the Reds their first lead of the match.

Will Bailey then increased the Red Warrior's advantage and Cameron Kidd settled the match with the home side's fourth.

Summer, Shannon stand up

HAVERHILL'S junior rugby teams acquitted themselves well at a mini-tournament hosted by Wendens Ambo at the weekend. The under-10 sides could not be separated in two matches, battling out two 10-10 draws with Ben Shannon earning the team player of the day award for his brave and committed efforts. The under-11/12 side had a much tougher day out, losing both encounters to their Wendens opposition. Haverhill were beaten 28-14 in the first match, although they scored tries through Adam Slack, in the first half, and a second well constructed team try in a more competitive second spell. In the second match, some naive kicking cost Haverhill dearly as they were downed 14-0. Summer Roy's contribution in both matches was recognised with the team player of the day award.

Wheeler pops up with vital winner

PLAYMAKER George Wheeler scored the decisive goal as Hundon produced one of their bravest performances of the season to date away at Isleham on Sunday.

On a hard bouncy and windswept pitch, Isleham produced the early pressure against a patched-up Hundon side, who had a number of players unavailable due to illness. Having weathered the early pressure, Hundon produced some good football and created chances for James Battye and Tom Lock. Isleham scored a tremendous free kick after Simon Walters was penalised for allegedly handling outside his area. But Hundon responded immediately and scored a deserved equaliser through Lock and the deadlocked remained until half time. Skipper Todd Martin, suffering from the flu, came on a substitute in the second half, and his attitude and commitment spread through the team, who dug deep and battled to preserve at least a point. And their hard work was rewarded with the winning goal from Wheeler, who along with Harry Middleditch worked tirelessly in midfield. There were excellent performances throughout the team, not the least by Alex Wheeler, who played out of position all game and was outstanding at the back, alongside Martin.

Hot-shot Halls swings it the way of the Gunners

A MUCH improved Grampian performance saw them take the points off a tough Chesterton side.

On a windy day, the home side took the lead against the breeze through leading-scorer Luke Halls, but Chesterton equalised when the home side failed to clear a corner kick.

The second half saw the Gunners pick up the tempo and when Luke Youngs fired home a long-range free kick, there was only going to be one winner.

Halls scored again from the edge of the box and Jackson went close in the final minute.

Manager Simon Youngs said: "Credit to the boys, I tell them when they haven't done well, but today we were much better and everybody did their job.

"It was a good win for us. "

Pilcher clinches cup win

HAVERHILL left it late to beat Godmanchester at Hamlet Croft and advance to the third round of the League Cup.

John Brierley twice went close for the visitors in the first half with dangerous free-kicks.

But with 15 minutes remaining in a tight affair, played on a boggy surface, Nick Impey pounced to break the deadlock from close range.

And moments later, Dan Pilcher controlled Martin Westcott's scuffed drive and beat Gavin Armitage to wrap up the victory.

Meanwhile, Haverhill unbeaten away league record finally came to an end with a 2-1 defeat at Dereham on Saturday.

Steve Taylor's side were undefeated in their previous five games away from

Haverhill Rovers 2 Godmanchester 0

RIDGEONS LEAGUE CUP, SECOND ROUND

Hamlet Croft, but things did not go to plan this time for the visitors.

Dereham forced their way in front on 36 minutes to take a 1-0 lead into the interval.

Impey almost put his team level with a header three minutes after the restart, but he was kept out by the upright before forcing a good save by the host keeper from 20 yards four minutes later.

But Haverhill's luck on the road ran out on 75 minutes when the ball was allowed to bounce around their penalty area before going in off Adam Bensaud for an own goal.

Marcus Hunt headed a goal back five minutes from the end, but Rovers ran out of time to get an equaliser.

■ ON TARGET . . . Nick Impey's goal was not enough for Haverhill on Saturday, but he struck to get Rovers off the mark in Tuesday night's cup victory.

GOLF

Softley does it for pair

ANDY Softley and David Roope triumphed in the final of the Haverhill Golf Club's major competitions for the season, when they won the HMP Cup foursomes stableford event.

Softley and Roope produced the best round of the day, accumulating 41 points, two clear of Gary Baird and Eric Kiddle.

A further point behind were the third-placed pair of Josh Brown and Jack Warwick.

Leading scores were: Softley/Roope 41, Baird/Kiddle 39, Brown/Warwick 38, Walker/Turner, Hoy/Ryan 37, Ashcroft/Stuart, Fairhead/Galloway 36, Bradnam/Driscoll, Sisson/Bareham 35, Elsworth/Thorpe, McGarr/Fish 34, Bareham/Marsh, Cohen/Baker 33, Chandler/Davis, Briggs/Scott, Lancee/Underwood, Curl/Curl 32, Calmet/Tatum, Baker/Carroll, Macnamara/Hatton 31, Price/Thomas, Eldred/Tavener, Norden/Gitty, Wilkins/Bishop, Thomson/Pickup 30, Whiting/Craig 29, Penman/Nichols, Hepworth/Piotrowski 27, Brown/Turner 24, McKenzie/Mulley 21, Turner/Dalena 18, Spittle/Klinge Disq.

■ In the ladies' November Medal, Sue Carr (72) took the Silver Division from Denise Walker (76). And in the Bronze Division, Doreen Darbey's 70 was two shots ahead of Anna Fairhead with Heather Eldred (76) finishing in third place.

Foster double swings derby

Delaware Feather Angels 3 Arrendene Athletic 1

TREADFIRST SUDBURY & DIST SUNDAY LGE, DIV FIVE DELAWARE Feather Angels triumphed in the first ever derby fixture between these two Haverhill sides, after a strong second half performance set up a comeback win.

Arrendene started the stronger, and went ahead midway through the first half when Chris Goodsell crossed for Alan Brittain to tap home for a 1-0 half-time lead.

In the second half, Delaware took the game to their opponents and equalised when a messy clearance fell for Craig Foster to drive the ball into the back of the net.

Midway through the half, Angels won a penalty and Foster stepped up to put the ball away before Matt Cullen rounded off victory 12 minutes from time when he got in behind the Arrendene defence and finished with a powerful strike.

Luke Jobson was named man of the match and the win maintains Athletic's unbeaten league record.

Morrison set for U's exit

LEE Power has admitted there is a chance Michael Morrison could be sold in the January transfer window.

But the Cambridge United chairman told supporters at Tuesday night's fans forum that it would be a last resort to let the Haverhill-raised England C international go.

Power hopes to sit down for talks with Morrison and his agent next week to thrash out terms to keep the 19-year-old defender at the Abbey beyond the end of this season.

Morrison, who scored in England C's 2-0 win over Finland in Helsinki last week, would be free to leave next summer, as it stands, with United being eligible for a compensation fee.

"Michael has been a different class this year, but the ball is in his court. All we can do is make him a decent offer," said Power.

"If we can sit down and sort something out with Michael that would be ideal."

■ HOT PROPERTY . . . United defender Michael Morrison could be sold in January.

But Power said if it appeared Morrison, who attracted an offer from Southend in the summer and has also been the subject of interest from the likes of Bristol Rovers and Hartlepool, did not want to stay, United may look to sell him in January.

He said: "If that's the case, then we may have to listen to offers in the window, but we hope that doesn't happen."
